

Submission # :

Title :

Reader:

San Juan Unified School District Grades 9-12 Literary Magazine Selection Rubric

Please note: San Juan Unified personnel are mandated reporters and are required to report if safety could be in jeopardy.

The review panel has the discretion to implement additional review based on the content of publication.

Criteria	Meets Requirements	Not a Good Fit	Notes
Theme	Text explores the theme of identity: meaning, impact, how it shapes values, how it empowers, how it changes, or how it is impacted by others.	Text does not explore the theme of identity.
Form	Text is a short story, poetry collection, comic strip, essay, script/ screenplay, or novel excerpt. Text is formatted clearly.	Text is not an acceptable form of submission.  Text format is unclear.
Content and Language	Content is school appropriate without limiting free speech and reflects the district's 8-point commitment to educational justice: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• No graphic violence or sexual content is included</li><li>• No hate speech or discriminatory language is used</li><li>• No excessive profanity is present</li><li>• Privacy of people and places is protected</li></ul>	Content is not school appropriate and reflects the district's 8-point commitment to educational justice: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Graphic violence and/ or sexual content is included</li><li>• Hate speech and/ or discriminatory language is used</li><li>• Excessive profanity is present</li><li>• Privacy of people and places is not protected</li></ul>
Word Count and Mechanics	Text is no more than 800 words in length and contains few errors that interfere with meaning unless intentionally constructed to express speech..	Text is more than 800 words in length and/ or contains errors that interfere with meaning.	